Time extended for prepaid auto stand at Rly. Station

Now passengers can avail facility upto 11 pm till Oct. 16

Mysuru, Oct.11 (RK&DM)- With rampant complaints of auto drivers fleecing gullible passengers arriving by trains from different destinations at the City Railway Station late night amidst Dasara celebrations, the Traffic Police have extended the functioning of the lone prepaid auto stand by 2 hours. Accordingly, the auto stand, which used to shut down at 9 pm, will now remain open till 11 pm up to Oct.16.

Traffic ACP S.E. Gangadharaswamy told Star of Mysore this morning that he has directed the jurisdictional Devaraja Traffic Police to ensure that the lone prepaid stand at the City Railway Station remains open till 11 pm at least until Oct. 16 as there will be a huge mobility of people in Mysuru during Dasara.

He further said that the department would consider extension of the date depending upon the response of commuters after Dasara and added that this prepaid auto stand will open at 6 am on all days as usual.

Prior to outbreak of COVID-19 pandemic last year, there were 10 prepaid auto service points spread across the city — three at the City Railway Station (inside main Gate, CFTRI Gate entrance and at Babu Jagjivan Ram Circle close to the Station), KSRTC Sub-Urban Bus Stand, Mysuru Zoo, Hardinge Circle on B.N. Road, Infosys, JSS Hospital, K.R. Hospital and at Varaha Gate of the Palace.

But the nationwide COVID-induced lockdown forced the closure of all prepaid auto stands with the Government halting trains, buses and other public transport vehicles, in a bid to check the spread of the virus. The prepaid auto stands near the Main Railway Station and at KSRTC Sub-Urban Bus Stand on B.N. Road were reopened after the Government relaxed COVID norms.

Subsequently, the prepaid auto service at Sub-Urban Bus Stand is functioning round-the-clock while the one at the City Railway Station functions only between 6 am and 9 pm. But with the huge rush of visitors and travellers due to Dasara holidays and also complaints of auto drivers fleecing the passengers arriving late night by trains, the City Police have extended the functioning of the Railway Station's lone auto stand by two hours, with effect from today (Oct.11).

However, the two other prepaid auto service points around the Railway Station are yet to reopen even after 18 months of closure as public mobility is yet to return to the levels that prevailed during the pre-COVID times, though train services to and fro from the city have returned to near normal.

Meanwhile, the prepaid auto stand at KSRTC Sub-Urban Bus Stand, the only other one in the city as at present, continues to function throughout day and night, catering to passengers.

Avid Birder's Wildlife Message Cards-2021

Dr. Narasimhan

Mysuru, Oct. 11 (ASC)- Dr. S.V. Narasimhan, a family physician based at Virajpet in Kodagu, is an avid birder, nature lover, adept at computers, Karnatak music and astronomy.

Author of Feathered Jewels of Coorg, a field-guide to 310 species of birds found in Coorg, Dr. Narasimhan is the pioneer in spreading wildlife conservation messages through his unique hand-painted Wildlife Message Cards that are sent free to individuals throughout the world to mark Wildlife Week (Oct. 2 to 8).

Total number of hand-painted cards made by him this year is 2,630; in 37 years, 75,285 cards. Total recipients this year including Star of Mysore – 1,284; in 37 years — 13,387 persons.

The Special Wildlife Messenger this year is Rufous Woodpecker (Micropternus brachyurus) which is a medium sized, brown coloured bird, with short beak and a short strong tail. Male birds have a red patch under the eyes. They feed on insects, ants and flower nectar. Their call is a sharp nasal, three-note, Knk-Knk-Knk. The most surprising fact is that they make their nest within the carton nests of Crematogaster ants and the young also feed on the eggs and larvae of the ants!

After a big backlash, Facebook has put its Instagram Kids plan on hold. This move comes after reports that Facebook's own internal research had told it that the photo-sharing site was "toxic for teen girls." Instagram makes women and girls feel worse about themselves, presenting a prettified, highly filtered version of reality. While any platform can be used for a variety of purposes, there is a design to all tech platforms and algorithms — they actively mould our preferences. Studies have shown that Instagram did skew towards scantily clad influencers, for one. This can be disproportionately hard on women, who are trained to equate looks with social worth. Women are culturally pressured to be attractive, inundated with images of idealised body parts, rather than seeing themselves as whole humans. Young girls, whose sense of self is only being formed, end up thinking that the world's gaze on them matters more than their own gaze outwards on the world. This insecurity is not natural, it is created and sustained by the culture, including social media platforms. Instagram has not aborted its project, it plans to incorporate more safety features and parental controls. It can't afford to be perfunctory about this. Children today are growing up in a visual culture, and there may be no inherent problem with their access to a photosharing site — but to make sure they're alright, Facebook's commitment to their well-being should be more than skin-deep.

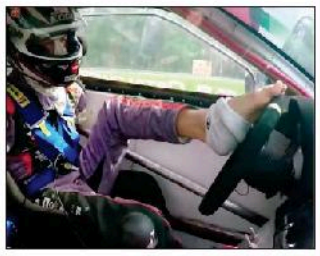
The armless professional sports driver



Warsaw: Despite losing both arms in a tragic accident, a motorsports enthusiast has managed to pursue his passion by using his feet to drive cars and even competing against able-bodied drivers in drifting competitions.

Bartek Ostalowski lost both his arms in a motorcycle accident in 2006, but that wasn't enough to kill his dream of one day becoming a professional racecar driver. Bartek mustered the courage and the drive to push on and in three years time he became a master of maneuvering a race car with his feet. Today, Bartek Ostalowski is the world's only professional sport driver who drives using his feet.

Nurse who hasn't cut her hair in 23 years

Irkutsk: A 28-year-old nurse from the Russian city of Irkutsk has been dubbed the "Russian Rapunzel" after it was revealed that her ankle-long hair hasn't been cut for 23 years.

Anzhelika Baranova was only five when her hair was last trimmed. Neither she nor her parents planned to let her hair grow for over two decades, it just sort of happened, as if it was meant to be. She claims she doesn't do anything special to maintain her locks, she just washes it twice a week with regular shampoo and conditioner and gently brushes it with a comb to ensure she doesn't break knotted strands.

Unscientific road works make life miserable for motorists

Sir,

About 2-3 months back, the road stretching from the residence of MCC Commissioner to the Circle adjoining the under-bridge was concretised spending huge public funds. In view of this work, the road was closed to the public during the period.

After all this exercise, the concrete road laid right under the nose of the Commissioner is unscientific. The road has several wrinkles and the motorists feel that they are riding on some unasphalted road. When this can happen before the Commissioner's house, one can imagine the plight elsewhere.

Further, in recent times, almost all the roads in Mysuru are in a miserable condition thereby causing huge inconvenience to its users. In view of Dasara celebrations, the MCC is indulged in pothole filling and asphalting some vital roads on top priority.

It is abominable to say the least that these prioritised works are being done in a highly untidy manner using public funds. The pothole filling is done without any scientific approach. Whom shall we hold responsible for this lacuna ?

Foundation Day-2021 at SDM-IMD

Former Union Finance Secretary highlights '7 Mantras to Success'

Mysuru, Oct. 11- Just gaining entry into top academic programmes or coveted civil services alone will not guarantee success, said Dr. Hasmukh Adhia, Chancellor, Central University of Gujarat and former Union Finance Secretary and Revenue Secretary.

Delivering the Foundation Day lecture of Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDM-IMD) recently, Dr. Adhia said, "Success has over the years evolved into something that everyone wishes to lay their hands on, but success would come only out of sheer excellence in everything a person does no matter how trivial the activity might seem to be."

Elaborating on 7 mantras to success, he said the first mantra "Importance of Setting Goals", with a mental picture helped subconsciously in bringing one's goal to reality.

The second mantra was 'Importance of Excellence' while performing a task, irrespective of the type, size or scale.

The third was 'Acceptance of Results.' He emphasised on the approach to respond to adverse situations and negative results, keeping in mind the hard work and dedication that had been put into the job.

Fourth mantra which Dr. Adhia highlighted was 'Avoidance of Ego' despite personal success. In one's journey to success, there would be involvement of many individuals and success is not something that was achieved by a single person's effort. A lot of people and favourable factors contribute to one's success. It was not a single factor but a culmination of multiple factors.

Dr. Adhia said that fifth mantra revolved around being a 'Lifelong Learner.' The day a person stopped learning, he/she stopped growing. He further reiterated the fact that to achieve success and excellence in life one must keep learning throughout his/her life.

The sixth mantra is 'Making only those promises that could be delivered.' Throwing light on this aspect he added that if promises, even if they were small ones, were kept, led to enhancing credibility of the person. Informing the other party on time if promises could not be met was also relevant.

The seventh and the final mantra was 'Managing oneself, before managing others' and how important it was to keep body and mind in control. One must understand, examine and introspect where they stood as a person, because one could control emotions and body through the mind. Yoga is such a system, he added.

Groom among three killed as bus hits goods auto

They were on their way to Mysuru to purchase wedding dresses when the tragedy struck

Mysuru, Oct. 11 (MTY&KS)- In a tragic road accident, a groom, his sister and the daughter of the groom's brother were killed on the spot, when a KSRTC bus rammed into the goods auto in which they were travelling at the turning of Morarji Desai School at Varakodu on Mysuru-T. Narasipur Main Road yesterday evening.

The deceased have been identified as Imran Pasha (30), the groom, son of Babu, resident of Indira Colony in T. eight members including with Imran left for Mysuru in the goods auto (KA-11-A-6052) to purchase clothes for the wedding. When they were proceeding near the turning of Varakodu Morarji Desai School, a KSRTC bus (KA-10-F-0334) which was proceeding to Chamarajanagar, rammed into the auto killing the three on the spot and injuring others.

The impact of the accident was such that the goods auto toppled and has been damaged badly. The KSRTC bus after ramming into the goods auto came to a halt after ploughing into bushes on the left side. It is learnt that poor visibility following heavy rains had led to the accident. Passersby and motorists travelling on the road tried to rescue and shift the injured to the hospital but three of them had breathed their last by then. They then helped in rescuing others, who were trapped under the goods auto and shifted them to K.R. Hospital.

Superintendent of Police (SP) R. Chethan, ASP Shivakumar, Dy.SP Dr. Sumit, Varuna Circle Inspector Mallesh, Varuna Sub-Inspector R. Lakshmi and staff visited the spot and got both vehicles involved in the accident cleared from the road and made way for smooth flow of traffic.

The bodies were shifted to MMC&RI mortuary, where post-mortem was conducted this morning and bodies were handed over to the family members.

Though the bus belonged to Chamarajanagar Depot, Mysuru KSRTC Rural Division Traffic Controller Gangadharswamy, handed over Rs. 25,000 each to the deceased family members as compensation after completion of the procedure. The compensation was handed over near MMC&RI mortuary in the presence of Circle Inspector Mallesh. Varuna Police, who have registered a case, are investigating.

Group clash: Youth murdered

Mysuru, Oct. 11 (SBD&KS)- A fight that erupted between two groups over trivial issues has ended with the murder of a 24-year-old youth at a vacant space in Gundu Rao Nagar yesterday evening. The deceased has been identified as Nandakishore of Bhyraveshwaranagar. His friend, identified as 25-year-old Sanjay, who has sustained injuries, has been admitted at a private hospital in city.

Nandakishore

The accused, who reportedly stabbed Nandakishore to death, have gone absconding and the Police are on a lookout for them.

Yesterday at about 6.30 pm, when Sanjay, along with two of his friends, was taking his dog for a walk, a group of seven to eight persons, who were sitting in the vacant space between Gundu Rao Nagar and Kanakagiri, reportedly picked up a fight which led to a wordy duel between them. Angered over this, one of the group members hit Sanjay, who then called Nandakishore over the phone, informed him about the incident and asked him to come to the spot.

Nandakishore, who came to the spot within minutes, questioned the group as to why they hit his friend and again war of words ensued between the two groups during which one of them tried to stab Sanjay, who escaped with injuries. Again, Nandakishore is said to have intervened and expressed his anger on the group during which he was stabbed multiple times. Nandakishore, who was profusely bleeding, is said to have died on the spot, according to Police. Vidyaranyapuram Inspector Raju and staff, who rushed to the spot, conducted mahazar and shifted the body to MMC&RI mortuary and injured Sanjay to a private hospital. Post-mortem was conducted today and the body was handed over to the family members.

Vidyaranyapuram Police have registered a case.

Heavy downpour results in sparks from poles

Illumination switched off as a precaution; People head home disappointed

Mysuru, Oct. 11 (YDS&BCT)- Rave reviews are being written about the illumination in Mysuru in both online and offline media and last evening, more than usual crowds poured onto the roads to see the lights. However, heavy rains dampened the spirits as the illumination was switched off as a precautionary measure.

Short circuits were reported in several areas and sparks were spotted at many places including JLB Road and Ramaswamy Circle. At JLB Road, a huge spark accompanied by sounds resembling a welding unit was observed. Public and survey teams from Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) alerted the authorities about sparks at various points.

To avoid any further damage, the CESC authorities decided to turn off the lights. This, however, disappointed the people who had come with their families, cameras and binoculars to see the illuminated roads.

Many complained that the contractors used cheap China-made bulbs and wires for illumination and as such, sparks were observed due to substandard quality. CESC officers, however, quickly denied it. It was common for sparks to fly during rains and this was the reason why the lights were switched off, they reasoned.

Amidst rain too, many people had come to see the illumination and were spotted clicking selfies. “So, the great thing is for the show, our technology and all that stuff is great, but for the safety of people, we just want to make sure that everyone has the ultimate experience. So we have decided to switch off the lights. Only limited areas were lit up and those too were turned off later,” said Dasara Illumination Sub-Committee Secretary B.K. Yogesh, who is also the CESC Executive Engineer.

Govt. allays fears of power crisis

Bengaluru, Oct. 11 (UNI)- Allaying fears of power crisis in the State, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Sunday said the Central Government has assured of providing 14 rakes of coal per day to address the issue.

"Right now we are receiving 10 rakes of coal. I have asked for 14 rakes of coal for the State's Thermal Power Stations, which will be sufficient for Karnataka to tide over the problem of power crisis," he told reporters.

The supply of coal rakes to Karnataka have been reduced due to coal shortage across the world. As a result, power generation in the State has been affected.

Union Coal and Mines Minister Pralhad Joshi has instructed the officials of coal and mines to meet the State's demand after conducting a meeting with them in Delhi.

"Coal shortage is being experienced by all countries across the world, including India," he said.

Energy Minister V. Sunil Kumar also allayed fears saying that the State has adequate availability of wind, solar and hydropower to overwhelm the power shortage problem.

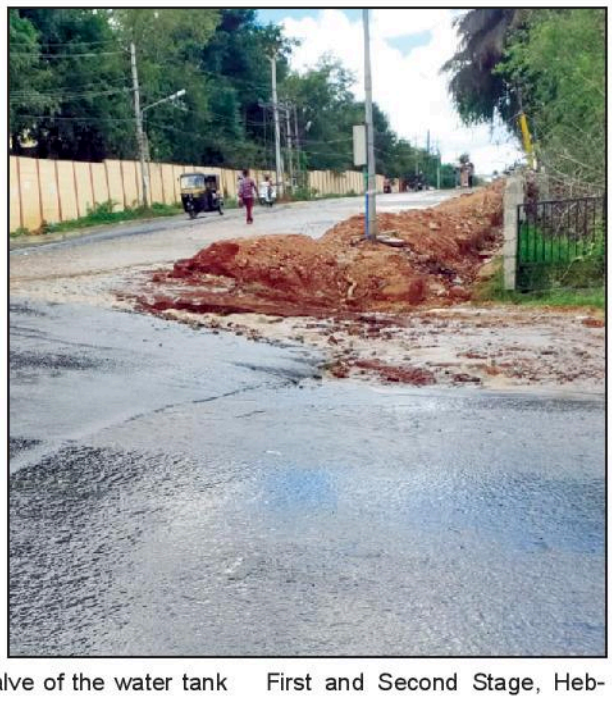
Moreover, Coal India has promised to supply two rakes within the next two days, Kumar said.

Supplies to Karnataka mainly come from Western Coal Fields (WCL) in Maharashtra, SCCL in Telangana and KPCL Mines in Maharashtra. The State is also requesting Mahanadi Coalfields Ltd, Odisha, for supplies.

The Government has the alternate option of purchasing power in the electricity market or importing coal, but would not go for it due to high cost.

Valve malfunction: Water emptied from Vijayanagar Storage Tank

Newly laid road washes away along with stored sand, jelly stones



Mysuru, Oct. 11 (BCT)- The water tank at Vijayanagar First Stage leaked and lakhs of litres of drinking water spilled onto the streets yesterday. The water flow destroyed the road that was being newly laid. It later turned out to be not a water leak but water was intentionally emptied to restore a malfunctioned valve.

Road works are in progress from the Ring Road, Vijayanagar Main Road and Jayachamaraja Road till Kalidasa Road. Following repeated complaints from commuters and residents about the pathetic condition of this residential-cum-commercial area with many linking roads to the city centre, repair and relaying works were taken up spending crores of rupees.

The road had deep potholes and for a few days, residents and commuters were witnessing repair works in full pace and the asphalting of the road from Sub-Registrar’s Office till the Kalidasa Road was to be taken up next. As thousands of gallons of water leaked from the water tank, the asphalting works that were taken up two days back washed away along with sand, jelly stones and other materials stocked up by the side of the road.

Though the officers from Vani Vilas Water Works were alerted about the heavy leakage, they told the residents that the repair works of the tank do not come under their purview. Later an officer responded that it was not a water leakage but the water was let out from the tank to the storm water drain. However, all the water flowed onto the road.

Corporator K.V. Sridhar said that the valve of the water tank was damaged and as such, water could not be efficiently supplied to areas. The tank had to be emptied for the valve to be repaired and as the drainages were narrow, water flowed onto the road, he added.

Due to the water flow, many areas including Vijayanagar First and Second Stage, Hebbal, residential pockets of Krishnadevaraya Circle did not receive their daily quota of water yesterday. However, the malfunctioned valve was rectified last night and supply was restored today morning, said Vani Vilas Water Works Executive Engineer Suvarna.

Unrelenting rain hits life

Trees uprooted, houses flooded; rains expected for a few more days

Mysuru, Oct. 11 (YDS, MK& KS) - Heavy rains that lashed across the city yesterday not only disrupted normal life but also dampened the festive spirit causing disappointment to hundreds of tourists who had come to the city to view Dasara illumination.

Rain began at about 3 pm and it gave a break for some time at about 5.30 pm. But again it started with renewed vigour and lashed till late in the night. The downpour made the roads look like streams causing a lot of inconvenience to motorists.

Yesterday being a Sunday, hundreds of tourists had arrived in the morning and after visiting various tourist spots, they were still in the city to view illumination on prominent roads and Mysore Palace. But rains forced authorities to switch off illumination as a precautionary measure leaving tourists disappointed.

Huge branches of trees near J.K. Grounds and Hebbal and fell on power lines snapping the wires which fell on the ground. Luckily, no one was injured as power was switched off immediately. As the branches fell on the road, traffic was disrupted for some time and the Abhaya team of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) cleared them.

Workers seen straightening the bamboo illumination structure which had leaned following yesterday's rains at water-logged Doddakere Maidan.

Houses in low lying areas such as Kanakagiri, Chamundipuram, Vidyaranyapuram, Gundu Rao Nagar, J.P. Nagar and Shivarathreeshwara Nagar were flooded with sewage-mixed rain water and the residents had to spend a sleepless night removing water from their homes.

Meanwhile, a few roads resembled small streams as rainwater unable to flow inside clogged drains flowed on the road, bringing weeds, plastic covers and garbage along with it on the roads. Highway Circle and Jodi Thenginamara Road looked like lakes as water remained stagnant on the road.

More rains predicted

The India Meteorological Department has predicted scattered to heavy rainfall across the State for a few more days. Dr. P. Prakash, Senior Farm Superintendent, Gramin Krishi Mausam Sewa at Organic Farming Research Station at Naganahalli near the city said that moderate rainfall is predicted today and tomorrow in Mysuru and surrounding places. He said that 15 mm rain was predicted today and 13 mm tomorrow.

Jumboo Savari rehearsal held

Police Band, Mounted Police, two Police battalions take part

Mysuru, Oct. 11 (MTY&KS) - With Dasara festivities gaining momentum and the grand finale (Jumboo Savari) to be held on Vijayadashami Day (Oct. 15), the Jumboo Savari rehearsal was held at Mysore Palace premises this morning.

Dasara elephants Golden Howdah carrying elephant Abhimanyu, Kumki elephants Chaitra and Kaveri, Ashwathama and Lakshmi along with the Police Band, Mounted Police battalion and two Police battalions took part in the rehearsal.

The rehearsal was held without the wooden howdah mounted on Abhimanyu as the weight carrying training for Dasara elephants has been stopped since yesterday and the special diet for them is being continued.

Abhimanyu, along with Chaitra and Kaveri, which were made to stand near the residence of the Mysore royal family were brought in a procession to the podium, where dignitaries shower flower petals on the idol of Goddess Chamundeshwari placed inside the 750-kg weighing Golden Howdah.

Two rounds of Jumboo Savari rehearsals were held today and the elephants were sent back to their sheds for rest. The rehearsals went off smoothly without any glitches.

Another round of rehearsal will be held tomorrow.

WORD OF THE DAY

Cozen

Pronunciation: KUZ-un.
Meaning: To deceive, win over, or influence with pleasing words or actions or by trickery.
Origin: Cozen is believed to come from the Italian word for a horse trader, cozzone. Horse-trading, as in the actual swapping of horses, usually involved bargaining and compromise — and, in fact, the term horse-trading has come to suggest any shrewd negotiation. It seems safe to assume that not all of these negotiations were entirely on the up-and-up. Given its association with horse traders, it's not too surprising that cozen suggests deception and fraud.
Example: "In the histories, indeed, we may be amazed and grieved to read how (seemingly) Melkor deceived and cozened others, and how ... Melkor knew well the error of his ways...." —J.R.R. Tolkien, "Ósanwe-Kenta," ca.1960.

THE ODD WORD

Cadge

To beg or sponge from another.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Chow down

Meaning: To sit down to eat.
Origin: The origin of the expression 'chow down' comes from the U.S. military, with first usage occurring sometime around WWII. The earliest printed use comes from a December 1942 issue of The Hammond Times in a story about sailors' life on a submarine: "'Chow down, sir,' a Negro mess attendant in a white coat informed. Served on navy blue and white china we put away steak, potatoes, peas, and ice cream."
Example: "Dinner's ready; let's chow down!"
